

eVision Services – Privacy Statement

eVision Services knows that you care how information about you is used and shared, and we appreciate your trust that we will do so carefully and sensibly.

Information We Collect

Through the use of Smart Spec, you will be inputting customer contact information, customer product selections and other job-specific information. This information, in specific detail is your property and is only viewable by any people you share the password access to your individual account. All product data is stored in summary form and is available to the manufacturer who has sponsored your access to Smart Spec. That information may be used by the manufacturer to better understand the market trends and consumer interest in the manufacturer's products. The information collected will only be available to the sponsoring manufacturer.

Any distribution of collected information will be in summary form for the purpose of tracking trends in the market place. Specific client contact information will not be sold or distributed in any format. eVision Services reserves the right to market the collected summary data as it sees fit.
